

Workshop on AI and Consciousness

Venue: LMU München, Leopoldstraße 13, 80802 München, Room 2102.

Schedule: Friday, 21st of November

09:30 – 10:00	Registration, Welcome & Opening Remarks
10:00 – 11:00	Joanna Bryson (Hertie School): ‘How Consciousness Relates to Morality: When Artificial Consciousness is Unimportant’
11:00 – 11:15	Small Coffee Break
11:15 – 12:15	Tobias Schlicht (RUB): ‘Can we assess consciousness in AI?’
12:15 – 13:30	Lunch break (finger food buffet in room 2102)
13:30 – 14:30	Nadine Meertens (LMU): ‘A Multidimensional Framework for Artificial Awareness’
14:30 – 14:45	Small Coffee Break
14:45 – 15:45	Leonard Dung (RUB): ‘Affective experience in AI and the body’
15:45 – 16:00	Small Coffee Break
16:00 – 17:00	Anna Strasser (LMU/Denkwerkstatt Berlin): ‘What Smart AIs can do without Consciousness’
18:30 –	Dinner (reservations will be made for the speakers and organizers, but others welcome to join if there is enough room at the restaurant: Deebe, Barer Str. 42, 80799 München)